

We were there when our grandmothers used to grind spices by hand. Now, it takes only a click to start the blender.

We were there when making dinner meant hours of sweat over a charcoal fire. Now it takes just minutes in a microwave.

We were there when we only had a choice of koay teow, mee hoon or mee. Now, we can also have spaghetti, fettucine or fusilli.

We were there as Malaysians picked up the tastes of the world, and the world acquired a taste for Malaysia.

And we'll be there when keropok and kopi-O, roti canai and rojak, satay and sup kambing are enjoyed the world over.
