- |     |  |                         |
|-----|--|-------------------------|
| 19. | The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of any money unpaid on their shares or on any class of their shares as they think fit, and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth (1/4) of the issued price of the share or be payable at less than thirty (30) days from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call, and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen (14) days' notice specifying the date, time and place of payment) pay to the Company the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the | Calls and when payable. |
|-----|--|-------------------------|

Directors may determine.

20. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments. Calls when deemed.
21. If before or on the day appointed for payment thereof a call payable in respect of a share is not paid, the person from whom the amount of the call is due shall bear all expenses reasonably incurred by the Company, if any, arising from such non-payment, The Directors may waive and not require payment of such expenses in whole or in part. Unpaid calls.
22. Any sum which by the terms of allotment of a share is made payable upon issue or at any fixed date and any installment of a call shall for all purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date fixed for payment, and in case of non-payment the provisions of these Articles as to bearing of expenses incurred relating thereto, forfeiture and the like, and all other the relevant provisions of these Articles, shall apply as if such sum were a call duly made and notified as hereby provided. Automatic calls.
23. The Director may from time to time make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the Members of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and in the time of payment of such calls. Arrangements and time for payments of calls.
24. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance in a Shariah-compliant arrangement the same all or any part of the moneys due upon his shares beyond the sums actually called up thereon, and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced the Directors may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay or allow such payment of profit where applicable under the said Shariah-compliant arrangement as may be agreed upon between them and such Member, in addition to the dividend payable upon such part of the share in respect of which such advance has been made as is actually called up. Except in a liquidation, sums paid in advance of calls shall not, until the same would but for such advance have become payable, be treated as paid up on the shares in respect of which they have been paid. Any capital paid on shares in advance of calls shall not confer a right to participate in profits. Advance on calls.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

25. Subject to the Statutes, any member may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form which the Directors may approve. The instrument shall be executed Transfer to be in writing.

by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferor shall remain the member of the shares transferred until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.

26. The duly executed and stamped instrument of transfer must be left for registration at the Office and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer, and thereupon the Company shall subject to the powers vested in the Directors by this Constitution register the transferee as a member and retain the instrument of transfer. Transfer with documents to be left at Office.
27. The Company shall provide a book to be called the "Register of Transfer" which shall be kept by the Secretary under the control of the Directors and in which shall be entered the particulars of every transfer or transmission of every share. Company to provide and Secretary to keep register.
28. The Directors may, at their discretion, refuse to register a transfer of any share Members (whether partly or fully-paid up and whether or not the Company claims a lien on the same) and the Directors shall refuse to register a transfer to any person who has not attained the age of majority, is a bankrupt or a person of unsound mind. Directors may refuse registration of transfers.
29. The Company shall before it closes the Register of member and Register of Transfer give at least fourteen (14) days' notice of such closure to the Registrar for such reasons and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that such registers shall not be closed for more than thirty (30) days in the aggregate in any calendar year. Closing of Registers.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

30. In the case of the death of a member, legal personal representatives of the deceased shall be the only person recognized by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of any share which had been held by him. Transmission.
31. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as member of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the Directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that member before his death or bankruptcy. Death and bankruptcy of member.

32. If the person so becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he elects to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the rights to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member. Election of person becoming entitled to a share.
33. A person entitled to registered share by transmission shall be entitled to receive and may give a discharge for any dividends, bonuses, or other monies payable in respect of the share, but he shall not be entitled to receive notices of or to attend or vote at General Meetings of the Company or, save as aforesaid, to any of the rights or privileges of a Member, unless and until he shall have become a Member in respect of the share. Person entitled to receive and give discharge for dividends.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

34. If a member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or instalments of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid, together with any late payment charges and expenses which may have accrued by reason of such non-payment. Notice to pay calls.
35. The notice shall:
- (1) require that member to pay the call or instalment and any late payment charges and expenses of the Company which arise from the non-payment;
  - (2) give a date by which payment is to be made; and
  - (3) say that if payment is not made by that date, the shares which relate to that call or instalment are liable to be forfeited.
- Content of notice to pay calls.
36. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture. Failure to comply with notice to pay calls.

37. (1) A forfeited share shall become the property of the Company and may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit. Sale of forfeited share.
- (2) The provisions of Article 14 to 18 of this Constitution shall apply mutatis mutandis to any sale made in pursuant to the provisions of this Article.
38. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all money which, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares and any expenses incurred by reason of such non-payment, and to satisfy all (if any) the claims and demand which the Company might have enforced in respect of the shares at the time of forfeiture. The liability shall cease if and when the Company receives payment in full of all such money in respect of the shares. Liability of person whose shares have been forfeited.
39. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. Conclusive evidence of forfeiture.
40. The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for a forfeited share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed off and he shall thereupon be registered as the member of the share and shall not be bound to see the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, or disposal of the share. Any residue of the proceeds of sale of shares which are forfeited and sold or disposed of, after the satisfaction of the unpaid calls or instalments payable at fixed times and any expenses incurred and claims, shall be paid to the person whose shares have been forfeited or his executors, administrators, or assignees or as he directs. Transfer of forfeiture shares.
41. The provisions of this Constitution as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified. Forfeiture, when applicable.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

42. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution passed at a General Meeting convert any paid up shares into stock and reconvert any stock into paid up shares of any number. Conversion of shares into stock and reconversion.
43. When any shares have been converted into stock, the several stockholders may transfer their respective interests therein, or any part of such interests in such manner as the Company at General Meeting shall direct, but in default of any such direction then in the same manner and subject to the same Articles as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit. But the Directors may, if they think fit, from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum. Transfer of stock.
44. The stockholders shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends profits, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such right, privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by any such part of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that right, privilege or advantage. Participation in dividends, voting, etc.
45. All such provisions of this Constitution as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and in all such provisions the words "share" and "Member" shall be read to include "stock" and "stockholder". Provisions applicable to paid-up share to apply to stock.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

46. (1) The Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution cancel shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution in that behalf have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person or which have been forfeited and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled. Alteration of capital.
- (2) The Company may from time to time by Special Resolution:
- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital, provided that the proportion between the amount paid and the amount unpaid (if any) on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived; and

- (b) subdivide its shares or any of them provided that in the subdivision the proportion between the amount paid and the amount unpaid (if any) on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived.

- 47. The Company may from time to time in General Meeting whether all the shares for the time being issued shall have been fully called up or not, increase its capital by the creation and issue of new shares, such aggregate increase to be of such amount and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts as the Company by the Ordinary Resolution. The new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges annexed thereto as the General Meeting resolving upon the creation thereof shall direct, and if no direction be given, as the Directors shall determine, and in particular, such new shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends, and in the distribution of the assets of the Company and with a special or restricted or without any right of voting. Increase of capital.
- 48. Subject to any directions that may be given in accordance with the powers contained in this Constitution, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original capital and shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, lien and otherwise as if it had been part of the original capital. Creation of new shares to be considered as part of original capital.
- 49. The Company may by Special Resolution reduce its share capital in any manner authorized and subject to any conditions prescribed by the Act. Reduction of capital.

GENERAL MEETINGS

- 50. (1) The Company shall, in each year, hold a General Meeting as its annual General Meeting, in addition to any other meetings in that year. An annual General Meeting of the Company shall be held within six (6) months of the Company's financial year end and not more than fifteen (15) months after the last preceding annual General Meeting unless approved by the Registrar. Annual General Meeting.
- (2) All General Meetings other than the annual General Meetings shall be called extraordinary General Meetings.
- 51. The Directors may whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary General Meeting of the Company. In addition, an extraordinary General Meeting shall also be convened on such requisition as if referred to in Sections 310 and 311 of the Act or, if the Company makes default in Extraordinary General Meeting.

convening a meeting in compliance with a requisition received pursuant to Sections 310 and 311 of the Act, a meeting may be convened by the requisitionists themselves in the manner provided in Section 313 of the Act.

52. All General Meetings shall be held at such time and place as the Directors shall determine. Time and place.
53. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Act relating to agreement for shorter notice, a meeting called for the passing of a Special Resolution or an annual General Meeting shall be called by at least twenty-one (21) days' notice in writing. Any other meeting of the Company shall be called by at least fourteen (14) days' notice (exclusive of the day on which the notice in writing is served or deemed to be served, but inclusive of the day for which notice is given). Notice of General Meetings.
- (2) Every notice of an annual General Meeting shall specify the meeting as such and every meeting convened for passing a Special Resolution shall state the intention to propose such resolution as a Special Resolution.
- (3) The notice of a meeting shall be served in the manner as stated in Article 153 of this Constitution specifying the place, the date and the time of meeting and the general nature of the business of the meeting. In case of special business, the notice of meeting shall also be accompanied by a statement regarding the effect of any proposed resolution in respect of such special business.
- (4) Notice of meeting may include text of any proposed resolution and other information as the Directors deem fit.
54. All business shall be special that is transacted at an extraordinary General Meeting, and also all that is transacted at an annual General Meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance-sheets and the reports of the Directors and auditors, the fixing of the remuneration of Directors, the election of Directors in the place of those retiring, and the appointment and fixing of the remuneration of the auditors. Special business at meeting.
55. In every notice calling a meeting of the Company there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint more than one proxy in accordance with Section 334 of the Act, to attend and vote instead of him. There shall be no restriction as to the qualification of the proxy. Member's right to appoint proxy.

56. The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate any resolution passed or the proceedings at any such meeting. Omission not to invalidate proceedings.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

57. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of Members is present in person at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided, quorum at a meeting shall always be pursuant to Section 328 of the Act. For the purposes of this Article "Member" includes a person attending as a proxy or representing a corporation which is a Member. Quorum at General Meeting.
58. (1) The Members may participate in a meeting at more than one (1) venue by video conference, web-based communication, electronic or such other communication facilities or technologies available from time to time in the future which would permit all Members participating in the General Meeting to communicate with each other simultaneously and instantaneously and to vote at such meeting. Meeting at more than one venue.
- (2) Participation by a Member in a meeting by any of the communication facilities referred to in Article 58(1) above shall be treated as presence in person by that Member at the said meeting and shall be counted towards the quorum notwithstanding the fact that he/she is not physically present at the main venue where the meeting is to be held.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, the main venue of such a meeting shall be in Malaysia and the chairman of the meeting shall be present at that main venue of the meeting.
- (4) Such a meeting shall not be deemed to have proceeded for such period or periods where any of the communication facilities referred to in Article 58(1) of this Constitution have been disconnected. The chairman of such meeting shall have the discretion to postpone the meeting which had been disconnected and which cannot be reconnected within a reasonable time, to another date and time to be agreed by the Members of the meeting.
59. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week (or if that day be a public holiday, then to the next When quorum not present.

business day following that public holiday) at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine, but if within fifteen (15) minutes from the time appointed for holding the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present, any of the Members present shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

60. The Chairman shall preside as chairman at every General Meeting of the Company, or if there is no such Chairman, or if he is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Directors present shall choose one of their number, to act as chairman or if only one (1) Director is present, he shall preside as chairman if willing to act. If no Director be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, the Members present shall elect one (1) of their number to be chairman of the meeting. Chairman of General Meeting.
61. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place unless notice of the fresh business to be transacted shall have been given in accordance with this Constitution.
