Golden Savers-i Savings Account FAQs

1. What do I need to bring to open a Golden Savers Savings Account-i?

You and / or your joint applicant will need to go to the nearest Maybank / Maybank Islamic branch along with all relevant documents as follows:

- Valid MyKad for Malaysians
- Valid Passports for Foreigners and
- Other documentary evidence required by the authorities according to the purpose of your visit / stay in Malaysia.

2. What is the difference between a Savings Account-i / Basic Savings Account-i and a Golden Savers-i Savings Account?

	Saving Account-i / Basic Savings Account- i	Golden Savers-i Savings Account
Principle	Wadiah (Safe Custody)	Mudharabah (Profit Sharing)
Eligibility	Individual / Joint Account (for individuals 18 years and above)	Individual / Joint Account (for individuals 50 years and above)
Minimum Deposit	RM250 / RM20 (Basic)	RM1,000
Dividend	Hibah based on discretion by the bank	Profit Sharing
Service Charge for Foreign Telegraphic Transfer	Yes	No
Discount from various merchant	Yes, under debit card discount	Yes, under debit card discount

3. How much do I need to open such an account?

A minimum of RM1,000

4. How many people are allowed to open a joint account?

4 accountholders

5. How can I check the balance in my Golden Savers-i Savings Account apart from my passbook?

You may check and view your account records via quarterly statements (received if you maintain an average account balance of at least RM1,000 throughout the quarter), ATM and Maybank2u.com.