MARKET REVIEW

Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) kept the Overnight Policy Rate (OPR) at 2.75% at the 3-4 Sep 2025 Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) meeting. Monetary Policy Statement (MPS) flags stable OPR outlook, thus signaling no change at the next MPC on 5-6 Nov 2025. This is in line with our expectation of OPR remaining at 2.75% for the rest of this year after the -25bps cut at the 8- 9 July 2025 MPC meeting.

Inflation inched up to +1.3% YoY in Aug (July 2025: +1.2% YoY). Core inflation also edged higher to +2.0% YoY (July 2025: +1.8%). 8M 2025 inflation averaged +1.4%. We maintain 2025 full year forecast at +1.5% YoY (2024: +1.8%) given the low inflation rate year-to-date, and amid the expected limited impact on monthly inflation for the rest of the year from the states' water tariffs hikes, the targeted RON95 petrol subsidy rationalization starting 30 Sep 2025, and the foreign worker EPF contribution rate of 4% effective Oct 2025.

Industrial Production Index (IPI) grew by a firmer +4.2% YoY in July 2025 (June 2025: +2.9% YoY), driven by manufacturing growth pick up (+4.4% YoY in July vs +3.6% YoY in June) and rebound in mining output (+4.3% YoY in July vs -0.01% YoY in June) amid moderation in electricity generation growth (+1.6% YoY in July 2025; June 2025: +2.3%). Based on Industrial Production Index (IPI), Distributive Trade Index (DTI) and CPO (51.4% of GDP), we estimated GDP growth of +5.3% YoY in July 2025 (June 2025: +5.5% YoY; 2Q 2025: +4.4% YoY), signaling resilient economic growth momentum in early-3Q 2025. To recap, our full-year real GDP growth forecast is 4.2% (1H 2025: +4.4%; 2024: +5.1%) and we expect steady growth momentum in 2026 at +4.1%. Official 2025 growth forecast is a range of between +4.0% to +4.8%, and 2026 projection will be unveiled at the tabling of Budget 2026 on 10 Oct 2025.

Unemployment rate stayed at 3.0% in July 2025 (7M 2025: 3.0%; 2024: 3.3%) as growth in jobs (July 2025: +3.1% YoY; Jun 2025: +3.0% YoY) outpaced labour force (July 2025: +2.8% YoY; Jun 2025: +2.7% YoY), in turn lifting income (e.g. manufacturing salaries and wages growth - 1H 2025: +1.8%; 2024: +1.5%) adding to policy drivers (e.g. civil service pay and pension review; minimum wage hike; extra cash handouts), which are positive for consumer spending (2025F: +5.3%; 1H 2025: +5.2%; 2024: +5.1%).
